

Call for Volunteer Specialist in Fundraising & Mobilization (Foundations)

Do you have expertise in fundraising from foundations?

Would you like to put your skills to use for a noble cause led by and for working children and youth in Africa? Join MAEJT & Enda JAI as a Volunteer Specialist in Fundraising and Mobilization!

Who are we?

The African Movement of Working Children and Youth (MAEJT) is a pan-African network active in around thirty (30) countries. Since 1994, it has been working to defend rights, promote active participation, and improve the living conditions of working children and youth, with the constant support and unwavering guidance of Enda Jeunesse Action International.

Role Mission (Volunteer)

In collaboration with the African coordination team at Enda Jeunesse Action International, you will be responsible for:

- Identifying relevant funding opportunities (foundations, private donors, competitions, awards, etc.) for MAEJT projects.
- Setting up a structured monitoring system (databases, alerts, tracking tools).
- Developing summary sheets on calls for proposals and their alignment with MAEJT's focus areas.
- Supporting the team in writing concept notes or application files, if desired.
- Advising on resource mobilization strategies.

Duration and Modality

- Volunteer position, flexible according to your availability (ideally 3 to 5 hours per week).
- Remote work possible.

Desired Profile

- Proven experience in fundraising (especially with private and international foundations).
- Knowledge of issues related to child rights, youth labor, or community development in Africa.
- Excellent writing and synthesis skills.
- Autonomy, rigor, good listening, initiative, and analytical thinking.

The Team You'll Work With

As a volunteer specialist in fundraising intelligence and mobilization, you'll join a dynamic team of committed and supportive young people, including professionals, interns, volunteers, and individuals from diverse backgrounds. You'll work closely with program, service, and partnership managers, as well as the Executive Director of Enda Jeunesse Action, who will be your main contact. He will assist you in setting priorities, validating identified funding opportunities, and monitoring actions.

The team operates in a participatory and transparent manner, with regular check-ins to share progress, pool resources, and celebrate achievements.

Application

Send an email with your CV and a short motivation letter to:

✉ jeuda@endatiersmonde.org

cc: aimeba@endajeunesseaction.org

Subject line: "Volunteer Specialist in Fundraising Intelligence & Mobilization – MAEJT"